A Walk in the Forest

Toby Turtle walked in Sunny Forest. The sun was warm and bright. He heard birds sing sweet songs. Toby looked at all the green trees. "Slow and steady discovers wonders!" he said. He loved his morning walks.

Pretty Forest Friends

Toby saw pretty flowers. They were red, yellow, and blue. A tiny butterfly flew past his nose. It danced in the air. Toby smiled a big, happy smile. He loved seeing all the forest life.

A Little Friend Needs Help

Then Toby saw something small. It was a little green beetle. The beetle was on its back! It wiggled its tiny legs. It tried hard to turn over. But it could not do it alone.

Toby's Gentle Idea

Toby moved very slowly. He found a big green leaf. He gently slid the leaf near the beetle. "You can do it, little friend," he said softly. The beetle crawled onto the leaf.

A Happy Thank You

Toby carefully lifted the leaf. He turned it over. Plop! The beetle was on its feet. It wiggled its antennae. Then it scurried away quickly. Toby felt very happy inside. He helped a tiny creature. It is good to care for nature.
