Penny Penguin's Water Adventure

Penny Penguin's Water Adventure

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Penny's Sunny Start

Penny Penguin loved Saturdays! She woke up feeling happy and full of energy. "Time to play!" she chirped. She zoomed outside to Snowy Shores. The sun was bright. She wanted to play hide-and-seek with her shadow. Penny felt very excited.

Penny Penguin's Water Adventure

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Playing on Snowy Shores

Penny ran fast across the icy ground. She waddled and tumbled. Her black-and-white feathers gleamed. She giggled as her shadow tried to keep up. Playing was such fun! She did many happy hops. Penny felt very sporty today.

Penny Penguin's Water Adventure

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A Little Dry Feeling

After a lot of play, Penny felt a bit tired. Her beak felt dry. "Oh dear!" she thought. "I need something." She stopped hopping. Penny remembered her special saying. "Healthy habits make every day fun!" It was important to remember.

Penny Penguin's Water Adventure

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Finding the Water

Penny remembered her water bottle. She had left it near a big ice rock. She waddled quickly to find it. "There it is!" she said with a smile. It was blue and sparkly. She opened it up. Penny was happy to see her bottle.

Penny Penguin's Water Adventure

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Feeling Fresh Again

Penny took a big, long sip of cool water. Ahh, that felt so good! Her dry beak felt fresh again. Her energy came back. "Now I can play more!" she cheered. Drinking water makes her body happy and strong. Penny was ready for more fun!