Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A Sunny Saturday Morning

Penny Penguin woke up early. The sun peeked over Snowy Shores. "It's Saturday!" she chirped. "Time for fun!" She stretched her little wings. Penny felt so happy. She thought about playing outside. Running on the soft snow sounded nice. She wanted to slide and splash. "What a wonderful day!" Penny giggled. Her bright orange beak smiled. She felt bouncy and ready to go.

Something Important to Remember

Penny almost hopped out the door. Then, she stopped. "Wait a minute!" she thought. Her tummy felt a little bit grumbly. She had just eaten her yummy fish breakfast. She remembered what her Mummy always said. "Clean teeth help you feel good." Penny touched her small beak. Did her teeth feel clean? She was not so sure.

A Tiny Bit of Fish!

Penny waddled to her small bathroom. She looked in the mirror. Oh dear! She saw tiny little bits. A small piece of fish was stuck! "Uh-oh!" she said softly. Penny remembered her special saying. "Healthy habits make every day fun!" Brushing her teeth was a very good habit. It made her feel sparkly and clean.

Brush, Brush, Brush!

Penny grabbed her bright blue toothbrush. She squeezed a tiny bit of mint toothpaste.

Swish-swish-swish! Up and down she brushed. She brushed her front teeth. She brushed her back teeth too. Penny sang a happy little song. Her webbed feet tapped on the floor. "Brush, brush, brush!" she sang. Her mouth felt very bubbly.

Ready for Fun!

Soon, Penny rinsed her mouth. She spit out the bubbly foam. Her teeth felt so smooth. They looked shiny and white! Penny smiled a big, happy smile. "My teeth feel super clean!" she cheered. "Now I am ready to play!" Healthy habits made her feel healthy and strong. Penny was ready for a fantastic Saturday.
