

Penny Penguin's Thirsty Day

Penny Penguin's Thirsty Day

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Playing in the Sun

Penny Penguin loved Saturdays. She played near Snowy Shores. The sun felt warm on her feathers. Penny decided to run and jump. "Healthy habits make every day fun!" she chirped loudly. She chased a rolling snowball. Penny felt strong and very happy. Her cheeks glowed pink from all the fun.

Penny Penguin's Thirsty Day

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Feeling a Bit Tired

Penny ran and jumped some more. She loved to slide on the ice. She waddled fast, then slid far! "Whee!" she called out with joy. After a while, Penny felt hot. Her throat felt a little dry. She did not stop playing yet. She just kept on moving her feet. Her energy felt a bit low.

Penny Penguin's Thirsty Day

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A Missing Habit

Soon, Penny felt very tired. She sat down on a cool ice patch. "Phew!" she sighed softly. "Why do I feel so sleepy?" she thought. Penny remembered her catchphrase. "Healthy habits make every day fun!" What healthy habit did she forget today? She closed her eyes and thought hard. It felt like a big puzzle.

Penny Penguin's Thirsty Day

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

The Big Sip!

Then, Penny looked at her bag. She saw her bright blue water bottle! "Oh!" she said, eyes wide open. "I forgot to drink my water!" Penny knew drinking water was important. It helps keep penguins strong. She opened her bottle and took a big sip. Ah, that felt so good and cool!

Penny Penguin's Thirsty Day

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Strong and Happy

Penny drank more water slowly. She felt her energy come back. Her dry throat felt much better. A big smile spread on her face. "Healthy habits make every day fun!" she chirped again. Penny felt happy and refreshed. She knew staying hydrated kept her healthy. Now she could play all afternoon!