Stretch and Wiggle

First, Penny stretched her flippers high. Up, up, up! Then she touched her toes. Down, down, down! She wiggled her body. Left, right, left. It felt so good to move. Her feathers gently swayed. She felt awake and ready.

A Wobbly Hop

Next, Penny tried to hop on one foot. Hop, hop, hop! This was a little tricky. She wobbled a bit. Oh dear! Her flippers went out to help. She giggled. Staying balanced was hard. But Penny did not give up.

Finding Her Balance

Penny took a deep breath. She tried again, very slowly. She kept her eyes steady. One foot up. Two flippers out. Yes! She stood still. Penny balanced! She felt very proud. Hopping was fun now. She even twirled around.
