Oliver Fox and the Shy Squirrel

Oliver Fox and the Shy Squirrel

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A Sunny Morning

The sun shone bright in Sunny Forest. Oliver Fox walked with a happy hop. His bright orange fur looked extra shiny. He loved exploring new paths. Oliver wagged his fluffy white-tipped tail. He heard birds sing sweet songs. What a lovely morning it was for making friends!

Oliver Fox and the Shy Squirrel

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A New Friend Appears

Oliver spotted something small. It was a little brown squirrel. The squirrel sat under a big oak tree. He looked a bit shy. His bushy tail was not fluffy. He looked down at his paws. Oliver had not seen him before. "Hello there!" Oliver called out with a friendly wave.

Oliver Fox and the Shy Squirrel

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Pip Needs Help

The squirrel looked up. "Hello," he said softly. "My name is Pip. I am new here." Pip looked sad. "I cannot find any nuts," he told Oliver. "My tummy is rumbling a little. I miss my old home. I don't know where to look." Oliver felt a little sad for Pip.

Oliver Fox and the Shy Squirrel

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Let's Solve It Together!

Oliver thought hard. His clever amber eyes sparkled. "Don't worry, Pip!" Oliver said with a confident grin. "I know just the place for nuts. Let's solve it together!" Oliver remembered a big hazelnut bush. It was a little hidden, but full of tasty treats. He knew the way well.

Oliver Fox and the Shy Squirrel

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Happy New Friends

Oliver led Pip to the hazelnut bush. Soon, Pip found many nuts! He nibbled one happily. "Thank you, Oliver!" Pip said with a big smile. Oliver felt warm and happy inside. He made a new friend today. Friendships make every day brighter and more fun! They waved goodbye.