Oliver Fox and the High Pebble

Oliver Fox and the High Pebble

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A Sad Friend

Oliver Fox loved sunny mornings. He walked into Blossom Meadow. Bright flowers grew tall and colourful. Oliver saw his friend, Pip Sparrow. Pip looked a little sad. Her tiny head was down. Oliver went to say hello. "What is wrong, Pip?" he asked kindly. "Let's solve it together!"

Oliver Fox and the High Pebble

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

The High Pebble

Pip pointed a tiny wing. "My shiny pebble," she chirped. "It is stuck way up high. In that very tall flower." Oliver looked up at the big flower. The beautiful pebble sparkled bright. It was Pip's most favourite thing. Oliver knew he had to help his good friend.

Oliver Fox and the High Pebble

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

A Clever Idea

Oliver jumped up high. He stretched his paw. But the flower was too tall to reach. "Hmm," Oliver thought. He looked all around the meadow. "I have an idea, Pip!" he said with a grin. "We can work together! Let's find a long, strong stick." Pip's eyes lit up.

Oliver Fox and the High Pebble

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Teamwork Time

Oliver and Pip looked for a big stick. Oliver found a perfect one. It was long and strong. Oliver held the stick up high. He aimed it carefully at the tall flower. "Now, Pip!" he said softly. Pip flew onto the stick. She walked very carefully up. Up, up, up she went!

Oliver Fox and the High Pebble

Little Stories. Big Lessons.

Happy Friends

Pip reached the top. Her tiny beak gently picked up the shiny pebble. Then she flew back down to Oliver. "Hooray!" cheered Oliver. Pip dropped the pebble safely into her nest. "Thank you, Oliver!" she chirped. "You are such a good friend!" Oliver smiled. "Working together made it easy, Pip!" he said. Sharing problems makes friends feel happy. It also makes their friendship very strong.